Compass Creative Dramatics believes in offering dynamic, challenging, theatrical enrichment programming and strives to make their programming affordable and accessible. In that effort, CCD offers a limited number of financial aid enrollment to both to new & returning campers. In 2013, CCD offered free classes to 700+ students in 6 cities across 3 states and over 15% of their 2014 campers received financial aid or scholarship. To allow Compass to provide assistance to as many families as possible, CCD requests that each family contribute 20%-75% of the full camp fee. If financial hardship is too great, a request to waive any contribution may be submitted.

Please take this space to explain your financial need, why you would think your child would enjoy returning to participate in our programming, and what you hope your child will gain from participation this year. Feel free to add additional pages, if necessary.

I understand that this is only an application to request financial aid and is not a promise or guarantee of assistance. Compass Creative Dramatics reserves the right to offer the full amount requested, partial amount, or no financial aid to any applicant. I understand that if awarded financial aid that I will be held liable for any remaining balance due not covered by the financial aid. I understand that if I am selected to receive aid I have the right to accept or refuse the assistance offered within 7 days. If I do not accept within 7 days, the offer is considered void and a new application must be submitted for any consideration.

If I accept financial assistance from Compass Creative Dramatics I understand that I must still complete the registration, information, and waiver forms to be allowed to participate. Please note that students and guardians are responsible for following the codes of conduct and failure to do so could result in the loss of privilege to attend camp. If a child is dismissed from camp for behavioral misconduct they will not be allowed to apply for financial assistance again for one calendar year. If a family voluntarily withdraws before or during camp session after accepting financial assistance, that family will not be eligible for assistance for one calendar year.

Applications due by May 30th for summer and March 1st for spring Break.
